10:15	Other updates from and since previous meeting New Business / Round Robin / Next Agenda	Bruce: update on the Motus Dei statement: "Reactivating the Church as Movement". Principal Authors: Dave Coles, Michael Cooper, David Garrison, Evelyn Hibbert, Alan Hirsch, Victor John, Tim Martin, Aila Tasse, Wes Watkins With the Motus Dei Network (https://MotusDei.Network) Preamble Over the course of its 2,000-year history, the Church has continued Christ's ministry on earth while adopting structures and organizations to fulfill its mission. Yet today, we find ourselves at a critical threshold—an extraordinary challenge to transcend inherited frameworks as we continue to pursue God's will for this generation. In this era of upheaval and possibility, the Church must embody a more dynamic, adaptive, and mission-shaped expression. These circumstances invite us to rediscover the movemental ecclesiology of the early Church—a way of being that thrives in the margins, makes vibrant disciples, multiplies churches, meets persecution with faithful resilience, and effects deep societal transformation. This is a recovery of the Church's essential movemental DNA, a call to live boldly in Spirit-led advance. We long to see all God's people making disciples and bringing lost people to saving knowledge of Christ, toward the vision of God's glory filling the whole earth. We invite the global body of Christ into this grand adventure—a journey of creativity and courage, driven by the Spirit, to fulfill our divine purpose as instruments of God's kingdom.
